International Yoga Day

Yoga is an invaluable gift of ancient Indian tradition. It embodies unity of mind and body; thought and action; restraint and fulfillment; harmony between man and nature and a holistic approach to health and well-being. As per the resolution adopted by the United Nations General Assembly 21 June is observed as International Yoga Day. SPPS too observed Yoga in letter and spirit as yoga is not only about exercise to discover the sense of openness with ourselves but also with the world and nature.

XII Toppers 2016

SPPS students of class X and XII are synonymous to the pristine glory. With the grandiloquent performance they climbed the right ladders and expanded their horizons. Throughout the course they burnt their midnight oil and augmented positive points. They kept the tradition of 100% result intact.

Ramadan Eid

Eid celebrated by Muslims at the end of the month of Ramadan. The day signifies the breaking of the fast and it is decided only after seeing the crescent moon. After a whole month of fasting, Muslims rejoice and meet people to celebrate and spread the message of brotherhood. The tiny tots of pre-primary section too celebrated Ramadan Eid with great religious fervor.

Tiny tots of SPPS up for their Fancy Dress Competition on Thursday, 21st July 2016.
